- VI. Best Practices
- VII. Disclosure
- VIII. To-Do List

I. Introduce Yourself

1. Who are you? Please describe yourself in 1 sentence.
2. Where are you from?
3. Why are you learning how to code?

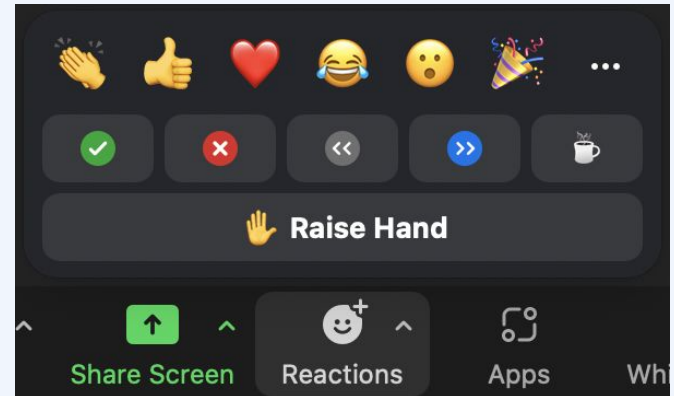

II. Online Lecture Etiquette

- Keep the chat focused on the material (no side conversations)
- Keep microphone muted at all times (unless asked to speak)
- Highly encouraged to turn on the camera
- There will be allocated question time - avoid asking questions in the middle of the lecturer presenting

III. How To Ask Questions

1. Use the hand raise button
2. How relevant is it to everyone?
3. Will the answer help today?
4. How much time / space am I taking?
5. Am I just showing off?

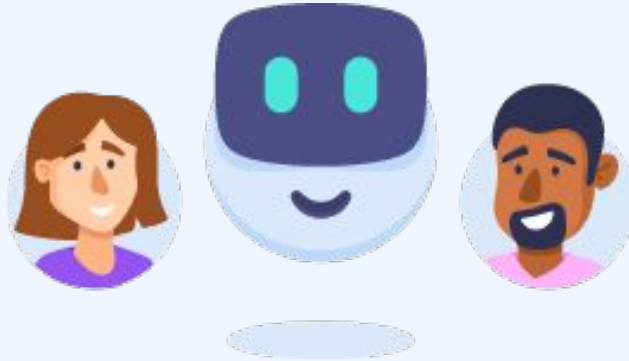

IV. Attendance & Participation

- Attendance is not mandatory and will not be used against you in any way, but it may be taken to keep track of the level of engagement
- Volunteer to answer questions posed by the lecturer by using the hand raise button or sharing your responses in the chat
- Don't be afraid of giving the wrong answers

V. Cohort Culture

- Be kind to each other
- This is NOT a competition
- RESPOND TO INSTRUCTORS' SLACK MESSAGES

VI. Best Practices

DOs

- Collaborate
- Communicate
- Attend live lectures, if possible
- Utilize resources, i.e. cohort
Google drive and Notion
- Keep practicing
- Celebrate!

DON'Ts

- Compare yourself to others
- Disrespect others
- Be afraid to ask for help
- Give up

VII. Disclosure

All the learning materials and live lecture videos, which you have gained access through signing up for mimo_dev and/or mimo live program, are properties of Mimo. These materials are for your personal use only. Redistribution of the materials is strictly forbidden.

VIII. To-Do List

1. Schedule bi-weekly one-on-ones with your instructor
2. Share your availability to attend live lectures and office hours
3. Begin working on Mimo_Dev Sprint 1
4. Join Mimo Slack channels
5. Attend a fireside chat (optional)
